W.P. No. 413 (MB) of 2002
Hon. A. A. Desai, C.J.
Hon. Irshad Hussain,J.

Heard Sri M.S. Tyagi, learned counsel for the petitioners at length.

The petitioner is challenging the Notification issued under section 4 of the U.P. Consolidation of Holding Act. His objection is not available in these proceedings. However, the objections raised in the petition can be agitated at appropriate proceedings before the Consolidation Officer and the petitioner is at liberty to raise these objections as legally admissible before the appropriate authority. Therefore, we do not propose to entertain the petition.

The petition is hereby dismissed.
